Known as "the popcorn guy" around Bloomington, Paul has donated over 40,000 bags, popcorn machines and popcorn supplies to many civic groups, youth groups, booster clubs, and organizations for their fundraising activities. He has them helped raised over $1,500,000 over the last 30 years.

Paul also was Co-Chair of the Bloomington Renovation Renaissance bond referendum to up-grade school facilities which included the build out of both Kennedy and Jefferson's Activity Centers.

Now, Paul wants to give back to the City by serving on the City Council in the At-Large position.
